

Democrat
Howard Dean for President for America

"I am deeply concerned by Bush Administration policies that threaten our basic civil liberties and the freedoms that we as Americans have fought so hard to protect throughout our history."

DeanForAmerica.com, "Homeland Security", April, 2003.

"It is every citizen's patriotic duty to speak out, to ensure that our post-war policies are constructive and humane. Concerned Americans should continue to speak out; and I intend to do so."

Response to sending US troops into Iraq, March, 2003

"The Bush Administration's policies at home and abroad are reckless and just plain wrong. We can do better."

Foreign Policy Address, Drake University, February, 2003

"I am going to continue to speak out. In the United States of America it is not unpatriotic to speak your mind, even if it means disagreeing with the President of the United States. I support the office of the presidency. But I don't support this President's policy."

Speech at JFK Library Foundation, March, 2003

"This country is fundamentally headed in the wrong direction, both in terms of foreign policy and domestic policy. We want our country back, and we're going to take it back!"

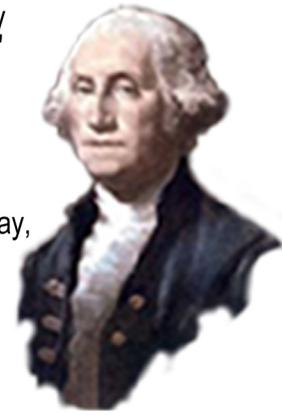

Speech in New York City, April, 2003

*Produced with volunteer labor by DeanVolunteers.org.
For more info: Dean2004@DeanVolunteers.org (617) 320-6989
http://www.DeanForAmerica.com http://www.DeanVolunteers.org*

America needs Real Patriots and Real Leadership

Celebrating American Heroes

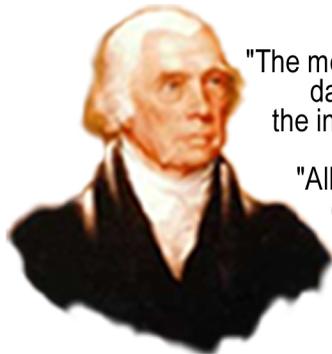

"A government is like fire, a handy servant, but a dangerous master."

"Arbitrary power is most easily established on the ruins of Liberty abused to licentiousness."

"If freedom of speech is taken away, then dumb and silent we may be led, like sheep to the slaughter."

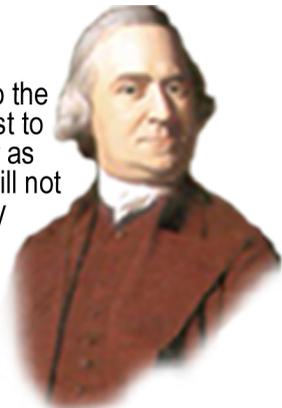

George Washington

"The means of defense against foreign danger historically have become the instruments of tyranny at home."

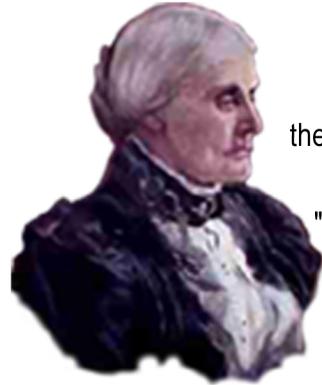

"All men having power ought to be distrusted to a certain degree."

James Madison

"He therefore is the truest friend to the liberty of his country who tries most to promote its virtue, and who, so far as his power and influence extend, will not suffer a man to be chosen into any office of power and trust who is not a wise and virtuous man..."

Samuel Adams

"Cautious, careful people, always casting about to preserve their reputation and social standing, never can bring about a reform..."

"I distrust those people who know so well what God wants them to do because I notice it always coincides with their own desires."

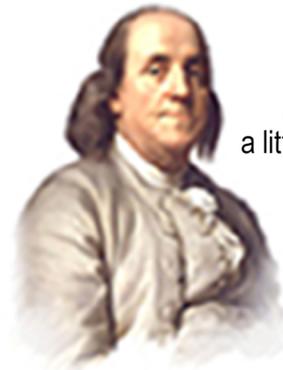

Susan B. Anthony

Our Nation's True Patriots

"Those who profess to favor freedom, and yet depreciate agitation, are men who want rain without thunder and lightning."

Frederick Douglass

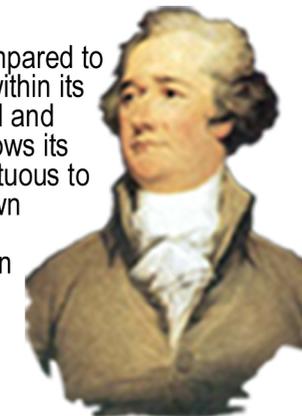

"Those who would give up essential Liberty, to purchase a little temporary Safety, deserve neither Liberty nor Safety."

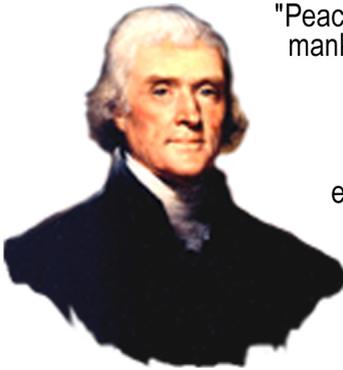

"It is the first responsibility of every citizen to question authority."

Benjamin Franklin

"Power may be justly compared to a great river; while kept within its bounds it is both beautiful and useful, but when it overflows its banks, it is then too impetuous to be stemmed; it bears down all before it, and brings destruction and desolation wherever it goes."

Alexander Hamilton,

"Peace and friendship with all mankind is our wisest policy, and I wish we may be permitted to pursue it."

"War is an instrument entirely inefficient toward redressing wrong; and multiplies, instead of indemnifying losses."

Thomas Jefferson